We will work with you to identify the most suitable service arrangements that may include our own services and services delivered by external providers from our approved providers' range. All services delivered by external providers will be billed directly to the Home Care Package. Third-party service charges will be all-inclusive and may include a reasonable charge for business overheads and recovery of the cost related to processing supplier invoices and client reimbursements (for instances where you make a pre-approved, permissible purchase of services included into your care plan and are reimbursed by us based on the purchase receipt provided).
